

Sources Chrétiennes Online (SCO)

Critical texts and French translations that have been published in the printed “Sources Chrétiennes” series now available in a searchable database

From its inception in 1942, the “Sources Chrétiennes” series (based in Lyon and published by Éditions du Cerf in Paris) has provided critical editions of texts from the first 1400 years of the Church, accompanied by a French translation as well as an introduction and notes. More precisely, the series consists of editions-with-translations of Christian texts in Greek and Latin, but also in oriental languages, such as Syriac, Aramaic and Georgian. Whereas it has always been the series’ mission to make the texts at hand easily accessible for consultation and (linguistic, historical, philosophical and theological) study, Sources Chrétiennes Online even expands the possibilities in this regard. Reserving the introduction, apparatus and notes for the printed series, the online database makes it possible to select texts along various criteria and to perform targeted searches both on the source texts and on the French translations that over the years have been published in the series.

A 30-day free trial is available from 15 October onwards.

The screenshot shows the web interface for Sources Chrétiennes Online. At the top, there are navigation links for Home, Advanced, Browse, Help, and About. Below this is a search result for 'Iohannes Chrysostomus'. The interface displays the title 'De laudibus sancti Pauli apostoli homiliae 1-7' and 'Homiliae: 1, Cap.: 1, Par.: 1 (Vol.: 300, Pag.: 112)'. The main content area is split into two columns: the left column shows the Greek text with numbered lines (1-10), and the right column shows the French translation. Below the text, there is a 'Background information' section with a table containing details about the author (Iohannes Chrysostomus), title, date, volume, and subjects.
